1. A school for Narodna Odbrana (National Defense) enlisted men and non-commissioned officers is located in the town of Begunja, near Bled, in Slovenia. The school is directed by a certain Economo whose assistant is Lieutenant Jurisovic, formerly attached to the National Defense command of Kopar. Edo Kodric, a former Triestine lawyer, is the instructor in penal law. There are approximately 1,000 students at the school at present.
2. At the village of Lesce-Bled, about four kilometers from Begunja, there is a small airport where some students of the school are given parachute training.
